EVENT OVERVIEW

Join us for a personal discussion as we explore the emotional landscape of adult adoptees. In this event, we will hear from Lorah Gerald who has lived through the experience of adoption and now shares her journey with us. Lorah Gerald shares her story daily on social media as The Adopted Chameleon. Through personal stories and open dialogue, she aims to shed light on the complexities of identity, belonging, and family dynamics faced by adoptees with us. This event hopes to provide valuable perspectives for those seeking to understand the profound impact of adoption. Join us for a compassionate conversation that aims to foster empathy, support, and a deeper appreciation for the unique paths taken by adult adoptees. PRESENTER BIO

Lorah Gerald is a same race, domestic, Baby Scoop Era, preRoe adoptee. She posts as The Adopted Chameleon on Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, Twitter, and Pinterest. She started these pages after her reunion with her biological family. Reunion was a rollercoaster of emotions that opened up feelings she had suppressed. Lorah found writing and being creative was therapeutic. Her pages connected Lorah with others who were experiencing adoption trauma. Since that time, she has been educating people on the trauma of adoption and how we can help heal ourselves.
